

Michael Schmidt on JancisRobinson.com

Schnaitmann, Fellbacher Lämmle Spätburgunder
Grosses Gewächs 2014 Württemberg 18

The Lämmle is a jewel in the crown of Württemberg vineyards and Schnaitmann knows how to polish it. Subtle fragrance of black berry fruit and cedar spice with the merest smoky notion turns on sophistication. Fruits of the forest, fine cigar tobacco and roasted hazelnuts just give glimpses of their potential to break the present tannic mould and turn this already pretty duckling into a beautiful swan, so to speak. (MS)